ROCKS

Nov. 7 - Tuesday is election day. Don't forget to cast your vote. What you do that day may do a lot for you in those days to come for the next four years. So I say Vote.

The Friendship Circle had its November meeting with Mrs. Leckie Moore on Tuesday afternoon.

Sympathy extended the loved ones of Mrs. Becky Shanks of Evergreen who passed away last week.

We were deeply grieved when word came last week that our good friend, Vester Garrett, of Lynchburg, had passed away. Our love and deepest sympathy is extended all of his loved ones.

The Girls Quintet of Rocks furnished special music for the revival at Pamplin Methodist Church on Thursday night.

Get well wishes go out to the sick ones in our community.

Our love and sympathy is extended the loved ones of Doris Anderson, who passed away on Thursday, after a long stay in a Charlottesville hospital. A large host of relatives and friends attended the funeral on Saturday afternoon.

Get well wishes go out to Ida Harvey of near Pamplin who had surgery at Virginia Baptist Hospital recently.

In the absence of our pastor, Rev. A. M. Taylor, who is away in an action campaign in Fredricksburg at Bethel Baptist Church. The men of the church has charge of the service on Sunday morning.

November 20th is designated as Old Fashioned Day. This day the ladies will have a chance to wear those beautiful long dresses, bonnets and aprons. Also, the men can dress appropriately.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Almond and children were visiting the former's brother, Harry Almond at the nursing home in Keysville awhile Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Ranson attended the Tommy Lee funeral at Centenary Methodist Church on Friday afternoon.

On November 20th the evening services will be cancelled at the church because of the "Crusade For Christ," at Appomattox County High School at 7 p.m.

On November 21st the foreign mission study book will be taught here at Rocks and all churches in the association are invited to attend. All W.M.S., B.Y.W. and Brotherhood members should come for this worthwhile study.

Mrs. Dolly Cawthorn spent two weeks recently with her daughter, Betty in Washington.
